

22	Father God, You know what faces me today. I am turning my cares over to you. Please strengthen me and help me to trust You with the struggles I face.
23	Lift up the many Iraqi Christian refugees who, having fled a genocide, can no longer imagine a future in the country that was once their home. Pray that the Lord will watch over His people who have suffered so much and guide them into the future.
24	Peter Barton of Adopt-a-child will be with us at morning worship today. Pray for the work this charity does providing food, medical and dental care and evangelism to children and their families in Albania and Guatemala.
25	Pray for the Church of Scotland's 'Renewing Ministry' conference on this week in Perth. May those who attend return to their ministries refreshed, renewed and ready to face the challenge of leading the church forward into the future.
26	Pray for the work of the Pioneer Café in Monkton. Ask God to show us His plan for this amazing resource we are so lucky to have.
27	Pray for the children of persecuted Christian families around the world. Ask the Lord to be their Protector and their Comforter in the face of danger. Ask that God will enable children to break free from the cycle of poverty and illiteracy, and give them a safe and nurturing learning environment.

28 Pray that a spirit of Unity will be fostered among the churches of Prestwick as we look to the future of ministry in our town.

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.
